

Every Subscription Counts

For votes in The Tribune and Telegram's $10,000 Contest. Ballots are allowed on both old and new prepaid subscriptions from two months to two years. If you haven't sent in your order yet, hand it to your favorite candidate today.

600,000 BONUS VOTES--GET BUSY

These 600,000 votes will be given away absolutely free. The capital prizes will consist of two ballots good for 100,000 votes each. One of the ballots will be given to the candidate in district 1, 2, 3 or 4 (comprising all of Salt Lake City) who secures the largest amount of cash subscriptions to The Tribune and Telegram (old or new and for any length of time) between the dates of July 26 and August 6, inclusive. The second ballot for 100,000 votes will be given a candidate in district 5, 6, 7 or 8 who secures the largest amount of cash subscriptions to The Tribune and Telegram along the same lines as outlined above.

Besides these capital prizes there will be an extra ballot good for 50,000 votes for EACH ONE of the eight districts. These ballots will be given to the candidates who secure the largest amount of cash subscriptions to The Tribune or Telegram (old or new) in their own individual districts. No matter how much money has been turned in by candidates in other districts an extra ballot for 50,000 votes will be awarded one candidate in each division.

The winners of the two capital prizes—one in Salt Lake City and one in the outside districts—will not be eligible for a district prize in the sub-contest. The candidates sending in the largest amount of money in the districts from which the capital prize winners come will be given the district prize—50,000 extra votes.

The extra ballots will be awarded immediately after the close of this sub-contest—August 6—but will not be good to be voted until the last day of the race, August 31.

MISS ETHEL NETTLETON AND MISS MARY HARKINS WIN YELLOWSTONE TOURS

Mrs. L. F. Mann Was Close Second in the City Districts and Miss Mary Logan Made Strong Bid for First Place in Country Divisions.

WINNERS GET TRIPS FOR TWO WEEKS' WORK

They Are Each Privileged to Choose a Companion to Accompany Them and Expenses of the Four People Will Be Paid by The Tribune and Telegram.

The winners of the two double trips to Yellowstone National Park offered as special prizes in The Tribune and Telegram's $10,000 contest for two weeks' work, ending last Saturday night, are Miss Ethel Nettleton for the city districts and Miss Mary Harkins of Bancroft, Ida., for the country districts. This announcement ends a great deal of speculation as to who the winners would be. Keen competition was engendered in all districts. Mrs. L. F. Mann of Salt Lake, district 4, was but a very few subscriptions behind Miss Nettleton. Miss Mary Logan was a strong contender for the double trip offer to the country districts and one more subscription would have given her the trips in place of Miss Harkins.

While the sub-contest was a great success the country contestants did not get nearly the amount of business that candidates in Salt Lake City did. In some divisions the amount of money was extremely small which proves that there is an excellent opportunity for new entrants to come into the race and win out.

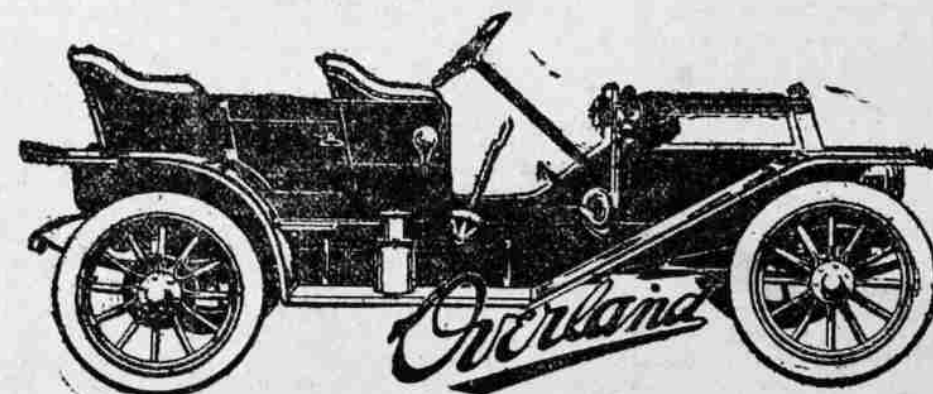

The sub-contest for the trips was exciting and keenly beneficial to all candidates as those who did not win secured the votes due on all subscriptions and these will be of material assistance in winning a major prize in the contest proper.

As it would give competing candidates an inkling as to how many votes the winners of the sub-contest secured the exact amount of business turned in will not be published at this time, but will be given out when the contest proper closes, August 31. The judges will go over the figures and subscriptions and verify the decision of the contest manager as made above. A careful and accurate record of every dollar received has been kept in duplicate and these records filed away for future reference.

IT IS EASY TO WIN!

The special offer explained above certainly points the way to success. The grand capital prize may be won on a much smaller margin than 50,000 votes. You need the district prize of 50,000 votes NOW, as otherwise the ballots will be used against you and may be just enough to spoil your chances of winning. A new candidate can come in to several of the country districts and by very, very little effort assume the lead. It is easy to win if you try. Why not begin active work AT ONCE?
